

ERASMUS+ MOBILITY: FINAL REPORT

Academic Year:

Mobility Duration:

Mobility Country:

Receiving Institution:

Study Program (FHS):

How did you look for a receiving institution? Who did you communicate with?

I was told by my supervisor as well as a friend and philosophy colleague to go to this exchange with Begonya Saez Tajafuerce (Department of Philosophy, Universidad Autonoma de Barcelona). They recommended it because similar to my thesis project, she studies Deleuze, identity, difference.

What documents did the receiving institution require? What to look out for when negotiating mobility conditions?

I sent them my CV, an email and the documents required to be signed by the FHS.

How did you look for accommodation?

I looked into the website "envista" which has many accommodations available. I found a shared flat with a private room.

What formalities had to be completed upon arrival?

I had a conversation with Begonya Saez Tajafuerce regarding my activities and then we planned them.

To what extent did the scholarship cover your total expenses?

The scholarship covered my accomodation, food and transportation, as well as the payment of my flat back in Prague luckily.

Did you encounter any serious complications during your mobility?

No.

What do you consider the most important benefit of the mobility?

I met many new vibrant academic colleagues and made friends that will last. I learned a lot about feminist methods of philosophy which inspired me alot for my thesis. I received helpful feedback on both thesis and a paper to be published.

Do you have any other useful information for students interested in this type of mobility?

It will be great there, that is all I can say.
