

BARCELONA SOCIAL SUMMER 2019

1-11th of July

REGISTRATION: you can register until the 30th of June of 2019.

The Faculty of Social Education and Social Work Pere Tarrés (Ramón Llull University) offers an international summer course directed to university professors, researchers and/or students from different countries interested in understanding the social policies, perspectives and interventions of social work in Catalonia and Spain.

The Barcelona Social Summer School 2019 will be held from the 1st to the 11th of July of 2019 at the Faculty of Social Education and Social Work Pere Tarrés. The program will include lectures during the morning sessions, and visits to social institutions or projects in the afternoon sessions, from Monday to Thursday. The program will be held in English. It will centre its attention in different topics related to the social intervention in the Catalan and Spanish context (f. ex. Social policies, immigration, international cooperation, interculturality, and many others).
